

Before the War

Black Star Riders

Come take a look up to the constellations
Take the book of God you will find your relations
If you understand you will know the solution
Things will fall back to the new constitution
I'm a son of a distant future
I'm the last of the seven troopers
And I came here for the seventh war
I'm a child of the stars the blaster of the Gods
And I have seen it all before, before the war
Cold hearted earth I'm the master of the Universe
I have seen it all before, before the war
Nature sets a limit to your millenary
Turnin' every place into a cruel mean scenery
All will get a chance to shun the Holy Fire
But you will be few gettin' under the wire
I'm a son of a distant future
I'm the last of the seven troopers
And I came here for the seventh war
I'm a child of the stars the blaster of the Gods
And I have seen it all before, before the war
Cold hearted earth I'm the master of the Universe
I have seen it all before, before the war
Mind the seventh war, mind the seventh war
Yes I came here for the seventh war
I'm a child of the stars the blaster of the Gods
And I have seen it all before, before the war
Cold hearted earth I'm the master of the Universe
I have seen it all before
Yes, I have seen it all before
Yes, I have seen it all before, before the war
