X-Ray Spex

I know I'm artificial I was reared with appliances But don't put the blame on me The pretty little mask not me In a consumer society When I put on my make-up In a consumer society That's the way a girl should be My existence is illusive The kind that is supported By mechanical resources By existence is illusive By mechanical resources The kind that is supported I wanna be instamatic I wanna be dehydrated I wanna be a frozen pea In a consumer society In a consumer society In a consumer society
