

Wonder (Not Far Away)

Michael W. Smith

Everybody wants to find a way Everybody needs to know there's a reason we can trade our pain and replace it with a rush of hope Everybody with a weary heart can fall and rise again from grace And when we're searching for a place to start the broken still can say You're not far away
You're not far away
Every moment you're a mystery a miracle that makes me wonder Everybody has enough to bear and everyone feels the strain There's a lot that really isn't fair but it isn't more than you can take Everybody needs a hand to hold to have a reason not to break Everybody with a heavy load rest is on its way You're not far away
You're not far away
Closer now, like a song in me
You're everything I need to know
