

Run Away (The Escape Song)

Oingo Boingo

Run away
Run away from here
Run away
Run away from hereRun away all alone
Run away from fear
Run away from sadness
Run away from tearsRun away from home
From the wife and kids
From the cats and the doggies
Run away to forgiveRun into the lightRun away from hereHide away in the lion's den
Play with matches and get burned
Flyin' high in an aeroplane
Run away, run away, run awayIn a fast car on a highway
Burnin' tracks towards sunset
No turning back and no regrets
I'll think of you if I don't forgetRun away
Run away, run away
Run away from hereRun away from the church
Run away from guilt
Run away from your dream
Everything you builtRun into the light
Run into the lightRun away from hereHide away in the lion's den
Play with matches and get burned
Flyin' high in an aeroplane
Run away, run away, run awayIn a fast car on a highway
Burnin' tracks towards sunset
No turning back and no regrets
I'll think of youRun away from the office
From your old work shoes
Run away from crime
And the big city bluesRun away from money
And the jaws of death
Run away from lawyers
And the governmentRun away from your friends
And your family too
Run away from yourself
Run away from youRun away from here
Run away, run away
Run away from here

Run away from here
