

You're Running Wild

Emmylou Harris & Rodney Crowell

how long can this go on you're leaving me alone stop running wild you're always gone my love you'll never change it's more than I can bear stop running wild you'll settle down someday and find i've gone away you'll think of what you've done while running wild
you can't go home you'll have to change your ways you'll have to go or stay stop running wild
