Enough Thunder

James Blake

Baby thats enough thunder
Tell me are you with me
Cause none of us is telling the truth
Tell me are you with me?
None of us who cry know we can hope break off
None of us who cry know we can hope break off
Oh we can all stay down, on one out here
So hes provoking our on the one for out there
Baby thats enough thunder
Tell me are you with me
Oh tell me are you with me
None of us who cry know we can hope break off
Tell me are you with me?
Tell me are you with me?
Oh, tell me are you with me?
Cause none of us who cry know we can hope break off
None of us who cry know we can hope break off
Oh we can all stay down, on one out here
So hes provoking our on the one for out there
Baby thats enough thunder
Tell me are you with me
Cause none of us is telling the truth
Tell me are you with me
None of us who cry know we can hope break off
None of us who cry know we can hope break off
Oh, we can hope heart break off
We can hope for heart break off
We can hope for heart break now
We can hope for heart break now.
