

Avalanche

Karsh Kale

Frozen water on the surface still Twenty miles down underground
Labor hard for maybe one flash of light Old boy you know you'll give up the fight some time, some time

Supplies you have to last a few days more stay and die or dig a tunnel to an open door Navigating through the avalanche Even friends on odder days have seen this story played out before
From a balcony seat watching from afar
The dark mines grow deeper every time

I'm still alive
I'm still alive
I'm still alive down here

Vocals / Lyrics - Shahid Siddiqui
Featured on Karsh Kale's album "Cinema"
