Soul 4 Sale

Simon Curtis

Come on baby listen there's some things you wanna know
My look about this love is: I don't know where it's gonna go
Don't tell me that I'm different; although you can try to show me
Other ways to go about it I already know
This is a relationship in which you make a sacrifice
You take the cut and split it up and leave the body paralized
Unable to be clear that you listened that you realized
That that's just what you got to do: you take the right, you pay a price
Hey!
What do you want me to say?
Tell me, are you ready?
Give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Oh!
What do you want me to be?
Show me 'cause I wanna
Give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Forty days and forty nights you worked up to seduce me
I listen to the lyrics of your song 'cause they amuse me
I sing along, but not as long as it decided to reduce me
To a puppet on the shelf just screaming: "Puppet master, choose me!"
So come on baby, come and love me like a kamikaze
We'll go down in flames together - light it up like Papparazzi
Go and light my name in flames, the flames will all renew the sane
So sign me up to love you 'cause I'm ready for the game
Hey!
What do you want me to say?
Tell me, are you ready?
Give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Oh!
What do you want me to be?
Show me 'cause I wanna
Give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need

I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Oh!
Give me everything, give me everything
Sign on the line
Make a deal with the devil
Make a deal with the devil in blood
Sign on the line

Make a deal with the devil
Make a deal with the devil in blood
I know your love is bad but I want it all.
Hey!
What do you want me to say?
Tell me, are you ready?
Give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Oh!
What do you want me to be?
Show me, 'cause I wanna
Give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Hey!
What you want me to say? (What do you want me to do?)
Tell me, are you ready?
I'll give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Oh!
What do you want me to be?
Show me, 'cause I wanna
Give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Hey!
What you want me to say?
Tell me, are you ready?
Give you everything you want
Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Oh!
What do you want me to be?
Show me, 'cause I wanna
Give you everything you want

Now give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
Hey!
What do you want me to say?
Tell me, are you ready?
I'll give you everything you want
Just give me everything I need
I got a soul for sale, a soul for sale
A soul for sale...
