Me In You

Kings Of Convenience

Crossroads and given the option
To pass and look back at goals I've missed Rainbows or burning bridges
If you squint a little more it looks the sameBut ooooooooooooooooooooooh
There's a little bit of me inside you
Gathering what you've lost
But ooooooooooooooooooooooooh
There's a little bit of you in everyone Can never keep a secretProblem; lines on your face You smooth them out so no one can tell put a straight back upon a stage could (dance dance) hide the tremor in your handBut oooooooooooooooooooooooh
There's a little bit of me inside you
Gathering what you've lost
But ooooooooooooooooooooooooh
There's a little bit of you in everyoneAnd I'm watching you now
I see you building the castle with one hand while tearing down another with the otherAnd I'm watching you now
I see you building the castle with one hand
while tearing down another with the otherAnd I'm watching you now
I see you building the castle with one hand while tearing down another with the other
