Zoom In

Duran Duran

Stood on the line
You understand I've been waiting forever
Come rain, come shine
In the wind, in the snow, in the filthy weather
You got it all worked out
Yeah, but it knocks you out
I'm zooming in
Now she arrives
In a flaming crash like a falling star
Heading straight for the dive
Gonna make some cash with that avatar
You got it all worked out
I know you know I don't want you to go
Yeah, but it knocks you out
I'm zooming in on you, on you
Don't look back you're a heart attack
Don't look back you're a heart attack
Don't look back you're a heart attack
Don't look back you're a heart attack
You got it all worked out
Yeah, but it knocks you out
We're not alone
In the second life there are millions like us
Right here in the stones
In the air too bright all the new insiders
You got it all worked out
I know you know I don't want you to go
Yeah, but it knocks you out
I'm zooming in on you, on you
Na, na, na, na, na, na, na
I know you know I don't want you to go
Na, na, na, na, na, na, na
I'm zooming in and out on you
I'm zooming in and out on you
Zooming in and out on you
Na, na, na, na, na, na, na
I know you know I don't want you to go
Na, na, na, na, na, na, na
I'm zooming in and out on you
