Right Direction

Sugar Ray

Stop 'cause you're by yourself, come on
Your someone else, no time for another line, talk, talk
Nonstop around the clock, stop, stop
Right, born beyond attention
Point yourself in the right directionEverybody knows somebody, who's a nobody
Won't you help him out?
Everybody knows somebody, who's a nobody
Come on help him out?
Everybody knows somebody
Somebody knows nobody
Everybody knows somebody
Nobody knows nobodyYou want to talk yea, then out the end come on
We didn't know where we'd talk
And talk and talk and talk and talk and talk and talk and talk
And show me the signs of your redemption
Point yourself in the right directionEverybody knows somebody, who's a nobody
Come on help him out?
Everybody knows somebody, who's a nobody
Come on help him out?
Everybody knows somebody who's a nobody
Knows somebody
Everybody knows somebody who's a nobody
Come on and help me outSomeone said get outta here, come on
We gotta move it out
No time, do what you can come on
We gotta work it out
Slow down thing and once again no way
I'm not driving with Lynne, stop push ejection
Point yourself in the right directionEverybody knows somebody who's a nobody
Come on help him out
Everybody knows somebody who's a nobody
Won't you help him out?
Everybody knows somebody who's a nobody
Knows somebody
Everybody knows somebody who's a nobody
Come on help me outPoint yourself in the right direction
Won't you help him out?
Point yourself in the right direction
Won't you help him out?

Point yourself in the right direction
Won't you help him out?
Come on, point yourself in the right direction
Do it now
