

Things I Can't Change

The Story So Far

This twitch in my fingers
Love, hate it lingers
Sent it direct, but the point must have missed her
Gave up and lost, cause of timing and pressure
And now I'm goneLie alone, it's all you can do now
And hear me drone
About the things I can't change
Lie alone, it's all you can do now
And hear me, hear me drone
On my ownWhat has this come to?
I know you don't see me as much as you ought to
And bot wounds are bleeding out
Grace me with nothing but patience
I'll admit that I hate this if if there's no other way out
(If there's no other way out)Lie alone, it's all you can do now
And hear me drone
About the things I can't change
Lie alone, it's all you can do now
And hear me, hear me drone
On my ownOn the outs with everything
The calm and talk you seldom bring(x3)Lie alone, it's all you can do now
And hear me drone
About the things I can't change (things I can't change)
Lie alone, it's all you can do now
And hear me, hear me drone (hear me drone)
On my own
