A Different Light

Sherwood

And there's a feeling in the morning that i can get my stomach screams a warning as my first thoughts are forming in my head and i can lay between the covers remember how i loved another and postpone my slow recoverybut i can fall asleep tonight if i can make it home by the daylight when i recall the times that i was left alone
'cause in the glimmer of your eye i begin to see myself in a different lightAnd there's a feeling in the morning
and they say, "whoa, baby, i gotta go... and i hate to let you know that this way."but i can fall asleep tonight
if i can make it home by the daylight
'cause in the glimmer of your eye
i begin to see myself in a different light
