Awake

Cavo

In a world that fades away
I need to be awake
I need to see the sunrise in this picture perfect dayand everything's a mess no one here makes perfect sense of this but this won't go away
no more
cause when it's over
she can't be real to mewe lived a thousand lies and shared a thousand smiles I need to be the part of this that just won't be deniedwhen everyone's a mess and no one here makes perfect sense of this
but this won't go away
no more
cause when it's over
she can't be real to me
no more
cause when it's over
she can't be real to meshe left me waitin falling from grace
she swore this time
would not be erased
I tried but it won't go, won't go awaywhen everyone's a mess but no one here makes perfect sense of thisbut this won't go away
no more
cause when it's over
no more
she can't be real to methere was a time when I could not believe all the things you sold to me when it's only you, and only me but it's over, over I need to feel this life again,
take away my world
you left me sober
you left me sober
