Thirteen

Mendeed

And so it is into my life it's back to take Revenge unto the world I'm not afraid I'm never losing
We are in another dimension we can take them all down
This time it's all or nothing only one will lace with something
Gimme fuel for the fire gimme strength gimme trust
In my heart this lasts forever
This time we ll fights oppression
Another rule in a fight of submission
All things that will end with you
Freeing me from the curse of youInside I'm beaten down
Ready to fall and I'm ready for fire
Somehow I breathe and I'm ready to stop you
This is my desire
You were the twelfth disciple
You're never real and you're living denial
Come to me and you'll feel the power
Open up the wounds and we only see the liesThat passed in the world we are the ones
With a vision
Run to the end ,end of all time
History is ours an immortal time
Reload war and design
Go unto hey and relics the sign
Of time our way of lifeNo we shall for deep into Battlefields, fight biol death. take you on anyway
Evil shall fall to the good inside
You cannot win this time, nothing can be ever so
This the final fight now see the end of lies
