If She's the One

Loreen

Your voice, your touch, its not there no more,
No hugs, no kiss, there's no love involved
No time for me like you had before,
The sun is killing me
Have you found love in somebody else?
Someone that gives you what I dont have,
Do I hold on to our memories?
Open up and tell meIf she's the one, if she's the one,
If she's the one, then Im ready to let go
If she's the one then let me knowCan't ease my mind,
I'm about to crack,
Youre in, youre out,
Whats the point in that?
Need help, no doubt, I'm a total wreck
The sun is killing me
Baby were either all in or all out,
Baby were either all in or calling it done cause,
If you found love in somebody else
Open up and tell meIf she's the one, if she's the one
If she's the one, then I'm ready to let go
If she's the one then let me knowLet me know, let me know, gotta let me know
Let me know if its over
Let me know, let me know, gotta let me know
Let me know if its overIf she's the one, if she's the one
If she's the one, then I'm ready to let go
If she's the one then let me knowLet me know
If shes the one let me know
If she's the one then let me know
If she's the one then let me knowIf she's the one, then I'm ready to let go
If she's the one then let me know
