Umphrey's McGee

I will not fall asleep tonight
I know I won't
But if this head could stop
I might find a moment thenLeave me while I rest
Slumber breathe its breath
Close heavy eyelidsAnd needing nothing now I find
That heavy falls
The burden's swollen in my mind
Simply wash awayLeave me while I rest
Slumber breathe its breath
Close heavy eyelidsI will not fall asleep tonight
I know I won't
But if this head could stop
I might find a moment thenLeave me while I rest
Slumber breathe its breath
Close heavy eyelids
