Lightening

Math the Band

I crossed the borders
The pain won't go awayFor this treason
I want to see them burn
Hunt them down
Make them understand
The power I possessI'll give you piece of mind
And freedom to search inside
I'll suffer for your soulsI cleaned the air
I slew death in your way
The hand of peace
All evil's great dismayHear the wheels turn
See the sky burnsFor this treason
I want to see them burn
Track them down
Bring them to silence
My will is the lawI'll bring you life and growth
And erase the memories of despair
I'll suffer for your needsDon't you forget where your domain lies
Obey your slaves with their feeble cries
We'll force you back if you linger here
We mock your strength, we see your fearYou'll never set a slave's mind free
Your bane is the grip of anxiety
At the ninthDon't you forget where your domain lies
Obey your slaves with their feeble cries
We'll force you back if you linger here
We mock your strength, we see your fearYou'll never set a slave's mind free
Your bane is the grip of anxiety
At the ninth, ninthReid, travel with no fear
Reid, remember to return
Reid, defy the laughing chaos
Reid, strike againYou fight the wars for your kin
You leave yourself behind
This settlement, you can't win
The inner eye is blindReid, travel with no fear
Reid, remember to return
Reid, defy the laughing chaos
Reid, strike againYou fight the wars for your kin
You leave yourself behind
This settlement, you can't win

The inner eye is blindI will clean the air
Know the pain will stay
I'll cross the border
I'll never fade awayFor this treason
I want to see them burn
Track them down
Bring them to silence
My will is the lawI'll bring you life and growth
And erase the memories of despair
I will linger on
