The Big Reveal

Cindergarden

The Big RevealThe silence is a game one last right final claim stake into the heart of blame potent light upon the shameIn the light of the remains the killing wars, the ways we came In the light of lost, insane the killing was all a gameGutted dreams, violet stain focus lost on the pain disconnected from the brain scapel nurse, we break the chainIn the light of the remains the killing wars, the ways we came
the killing was all a gameShut down functions, poison seal siamese watchers kneel waiting for something real torn apart, the big revealIn the light of the remains the killing wars, the ways we came
the killing was all a gameImprint steps, walk away static traces, remnants stay box of blood and worms to keep sorrow ghosts from which they seepIn the light of the remains the killing wars, the ways we came
the killing was all a game
