Finger Lickin' Good

The Anthem

They say
She plays
But those eyes
Are perfection
If you saw
What I see then you'd find out
Why they'd die to be herI know I'll never be the one she's looking for I'll never be enough for her
I'd better leave before it's too late
It's too lateShe's nothing like the girls you know
She's nothing but a goddess, oh goddamn
They tell me that she's bad and fake,
Why do they suffer?As you see
I'm on fire
I don't want to surrender
I dont know
Who can save me
This jealousy is suffocating me
Baby, you're not cool
Your off-hand comments passed through, it passed through her
Bury your confidence, you'd better come and get closerShe's nothing like the girls you know
She's nothing but a goddess, oh goddamn
They tell me that she's bad and fake,
Why do they suffer?
And when I try to get closer they want to kick me out
She's everything I really need
Why do I suffer?Stabbing her in the back would ease all your suffering
When you see her dressed to kill
She didn't look like she was scared at all
My struggling lines will take you somewhere in wonderland
Do your knees go weak when I speak?She's nothing like the girls you know
She's nothing but a goddess, oh goddamn
They tell me that she's bad and fake,
Why do they suffer?
And when I try to get closer they want to kick me out
she's everything I really need why do I suffer?(Struggling and suffering, my jealousy is gone)
