

Rachel Loges

Dixon Ward

I asked her out today,
she said no, but that's okay, i know her boyfriend.
I'm gonna find a way to make it look like im on top of this little house with a bunch of smelly neighbours.
you'll let me,
drive my stupid head into the ground
I'm gonna chalk it up as just another loss, or a string that breaks and cuts you on your neck stop staring stop laughing I'm almost used to getting dumped Vocals: Steve Poponi & Rich Eckel
