It Ain't Me

Threshold

Oh, paint a perfect picture
Don't tell me what you see
I don't know want to know at all
Cause nothing describes me
And all the broken words that keep on falling from your mouth
You had to tell everybody
You had to let it out

(Chorus)
'Cause, it ain't me who was the fall of you
It ain't me who didn't see the truth
It ain't me, baby
I can see finer now by myself
It ain't me who was the fall of you
It ain't me who didn't see the truth
I can see finer now by myself, baby

Oooohhh!

Trade all your thoughts
Of everything you think
Bury it in the ground
Awww and walk on by and wink
Tremble in the fear that I am never giving in
You had your chance, but nothing we could mend

(Chorus) x 2... end.
