Take a Shot

Fun People

Take a shot now, take my heart.
Feeling younger and lovely, I'm not.
Take my spot feeling only under the worst case of hunger you've got

I am bleeding nonetheless, breathing emotionless, feelings but I'm not

Stuck here and screaming, judging your feelings
And why your life isn't right like mine
A reason for healing, stuck in your dreams come to mind
A debt you pay, lost from time

Your reflection stands alone, you owe nothing but lies you call home,
And taking back to why you feel so cold.

I am bleeding nonetheless, breathing emotionless, feelings but I'm not

Stuck here and screaming, judging your feelings
And why your life isn't right like mine
A reason for healing, stuck in your dreams come to mind
A debt you pay, lost from time

You will never change.
You're stuck in your ways, and breaking away from why

You're stuck here and screaming, judging your feelings
And why your life isn't right like mine
A reason for healing, stuck in your dreams come to mind
A debt you pay, lost from time

You're stuck here and screaming, judging your feelings
And why your life isn't right like mine
A reason for healing, stuck in your dreams come to mind
A debt you pay, lost from time
A debt you pay, lost from time
