

Love Has A Diameter

Biffy Clyro

You can give up if you like your heads
Lying down at your feet
You can call on the phone
Anytime you want to talk to me
If you know who you are
You can always go round and see
If you don't and you're scared
Concentrate and grit your teeth I'm watching the radio
'cause I don't compare
I'm watching the radio
But it's the television looking at me Whoa
Whoa
Whoa
Whoa Feathers will fly if you shoot
A bullet full of bubble gum
At my throat or my heart
I'm protected by a humming bird
Receive only luck if you can
It wouldn't be a constant mistake
Over flown but under worn
So please come follow me I'm watching the radio
Cause I don't compare
I'm watching the radio
But it's the television looking at me
I'm watching the radio
Cause I don't compare
I'm watching the radio
But it's the television looking,
The television looking at me Whoa
Whoa
Whoa
Whoa
(I will claw at your own feet)
Whoa
(Just because it tastes so sweet)
Whoa
(Take it out quiet star)
Whoa
(It's not like your in need)

Whoa I'm watching the radio
'cause I don't compare
I'm watching the radio
But it's the television looking at me
(I will claw at your own feet)
I'm watching the radio
'cause I don't compare
(Take it out quiet star)
I'm watching the radio
But it's the television looking,
The television looking at me Whoa
Whoa
(Television looking at me)
Whoa
Whoa
(Television looking at me)
Whoa
Whoa
(Television looking at me)

Songwriters

NEIL, SIMON ALEXANDER Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>