

Say No More

Roy Orbison

Say No More
I understand
Our Love affair
didn't go as I planned Say no more Just walk away
Have no regret
I'll forget you someday Now we go our different ways
The lonely nights and endless days begin for me It's true that love comes to an end but still you want me as a friend and so Friend I will leave
Say No More
I understand
if you're so sure
Say No More (Verse 2)
