Invincible

xelle

Invincible (x7)No one ever said that life a was paradise
Or promised things would turn out right
But after the darkest hours
Daylight will come backPeople always want to prove you wrong
Try so hard to make you feel so damn alone
But beauty shows itself
In different shapes and formsNo one can love you better than you love yourself
Don't get caught up wishing you could be somebody elseYou're like the sun
Show them you make the world go around
Cuz you're invincible
No one can bring you downYou're like a dream
One that's worth remembering
Cuz you're invincible
No one can bring you downNo one can bring you downPeople always say the journey could get rough
No on ever said that you have to measure up
Only you decide what makes you good enoughYou have to let yourself be who you really are Cuz when your spirit's free you shine among the starsYou're like the sun
Show them you make the world go around
Cuz you're invincible
No one can bring you downYou're like a dream
One that's worth remembering
Cuz you're invincible
No one can bring you downNo one can bring you downNo one can love you better than you love yourself
Don't get caught up wishing you could be somebody elseYou're like the sunYou are a star and it's your time to finally shine
You are worth while, the best there is, one of a kind
Don't let the haters win, you gotta make a stand
You gotta be all that you can, you gotta be the better manYou're like a dreamThe things that you dream might be hard to achieve
But hard is not impossible if you believe
You always gotta be invincible at heart
Yah, you're invincible!!You're like the sun
Show them you make the world go around
Cuz you're invincible
No one can bring you down, down, downYou're like a dream
One that's worth remembering
Cuz you're invincible
No one can bring you down, down, downNo one can bring you down, down, down
Show them you make the world go around

Cuz you're invincible
No one can bring you downDon't let them get you down
