She Wears My Ring

Ray Price

She wears my, my ring to show the world
That she belongs to me
She wears my ring to show the world
She's mine eternallyWith loving care I place it on her finger
To show my love for all the world to see
This tiny ring is a thing of a tender remotion
An endless fool of love that's as deep as the oceanShe swears to wear it with eternal devotion
That's why I sing because she wears my ring
This tiny ring
