

Show Me Love

Yaki-Da

I just wanna have what is mine
Your love for me, wait and see
I'm not trying to seduce you
Though it's a long and cold dark night
You are the one, you are I would never try to change you
I wanna see who you are inside
Show me love and how to share it
I'll give you double up in return Life is now and meant for living
'Cause it's been gray for so many years
I feel lonely when I see you
Why don't you give me just a smile You'd make my day in many ways
Just a fragment of your lifetime
Because the shine in my eyes will tell Show me love
I, I'm not beautiful
But I can give you something
No one's gonna give you Me, I will fight for you
So I'll be yours
Just give me time
Show me love I live, I'm learning
Life will never, ever be bad
Under my spell
Kiss and tell
