Time

Roger Waters

Ticking away the moments that make up a dull day
You fritter and waste the hours in an offhand way
Kicking around on a piece of ground in your home town
Waiting for someone or something to show you the wayTired of lying in the sunshine

Staying home to watch the rain
And you are young and life is long
And there is time to kill today
And then one day you find
Ten years have got behind you
No one told you when to run

You missed the starting gunAnd you run, and you run to catch up with the sun, but it's sinking

And racing around to come up behind you again

And the sun is the same in a relative way, but you're older Shorter of breath and one day closer to deathEvery year is getting shorter

Never seem to find the time
Plans that either come to nought
Or half a page of scribbled lines
Hanging on in quiet desparation is the English way
The time is gone

The time is gone
The song is over

Thought I'd something more to sayHome, home again

I like to be here when I can
And when I come home cold and tired

It's good to warm my bones beside the fire

Far away, across the field The tolling of the iron bell

Calls the faithful to their knees

To hear the softly spoken magic spell
