

What's A Girl Gotta Do

Basement Jaxx

Go on with a smile your joints so out of place
Miles from the world so far from the human race
On your wildest face paint I see the tracks of tears
Running around like a mouse in a cage for a thousand years

Drinking wine to take away your pain
Collect all the tears you cry
Collect them all for me
What's a girl gotta do to get your attention
Well and nothing's ever happened no oh
What's a girl gotta do to have some fun with you
Shut your mouth put your lips on me

I feel guilty waiting for you to notice me
Should I write it on my forehead do you need it on TV
Can't you see I'm a freak for you as sweet as tea and lime
And it so clear to me you are empty as can be

Drinking wine to take away your pain
Collect all the tears you cry
Collect them all for me
What's a girl gotta do to get your attention
Well and nothing's ever happened no oh
What's a girl gotta do to have some fun with you
Shut your mouth put your lips on me

How does one equal three
Sometimes it is hard to find
Sometimes to my surprise
Cause all I want to do is die

When you touch me
Yeah you want me
When you touch me
Yeah you want me

No sir don't

Buh doomp buh duh doomp

Buh doomp buh duh doomp

What's a girl gotta do to get your attention
Well and nothing's ever happened no oh
What's a girl gotta do to get your attention
Well and nothing's ever happened no oh
What's a girl gotta do to get your attention
Well and nothing's ever happened no oh
What's a girl gotta do to have some fun with you
Shut your mouth put your lips on me
Shut your mouth put your lips on me

Dali llama caught you ah caught you ah
