Lemonade Secret Drinker (Acoustic Version)

Mansun

Bigger head, you got no bread in our house
Now look how you have got like thisNow they sleep in seperate bedrooms
Since they missed the jackpot on Family Fortunes Yeah, oh yeahHow long, how long to go
Do you think that we are funny if we do it alone
How long, how long to go
Ain"t it funny if we carry on they know we will moan
How long, how long to goStupid sod, you shout the odds in our town
You buy a box and call it homeYou"ve never been that much of a thinker, oh
Been a Secret Lemonade Drinker, wanker, oh, oh-ohHow long, how long to go
Do you think that we are funny if we do it alone
How long, how long to go
Ain"t it funny if we carry on they know we will moan
How long, how long to goWake up and look at all these things I bring you
Living on the handouts you collect in a cake tinHow long, how long to go
Do you think that we are funny if we do it alone
How long, how long to go
Ain"t it funny if we carry on they know we will moan
How long, how long to goHow long, how long to go
How long, how long to go
Ain"t it funny if we carry on they know we will moan
How long, how long to go
