

Gone

Olivia Broadfield

And I gave you all Im sure I can give
But its not enough
And I feel it sting
And our roses died
And the neighbours knew
And the house moved on to someone new
And I know you wont be satisfied
Til the fire inside burns like you once knewBut its gone
And Im leaving
And your storm keeps on raging
Yes, Im gone
And Im leaving
And your storm keeps on ragingAnd I wish you care
Sharing the blame
But you load your gun
As you take your aim
And I'm lying still
With my heart on the ground
And you saying things
Just to keep me down
And I know you wont be satisfied
Til the fire inside burns like you once knewBut its gone
And Im leaving
And your storm keeps on raging
Yes, Im gone
And Im leaving
And your storm keeps on ragingThats because of you
Thats because of youAnd I finally found that I found my voice
And I'm saying all these things
Just because I've got the choice
And it's goneAnd Im leaving
And your storm keeps on raging
Yes, Im gone
And Im leaving
And your storm keeps on raging
