

Stand and Feel Your Worth

Thrice

Wake, stand and feel your worth
Oh my soul
Kneel and know the word
That can save us all We are fuel and fire both
We are
Water
Wed with wine and ghost We are wrought with breath and dirt
Washed in second sight
Woven through the earth
Wreathed in rings of light Stand and feel your worth
Oh my soul
Kneel and know the word
Come to die We will wield a second birth
Whet our wits and knives
Wrap our knees in earth
Wrap ourselves in light Wake, we will weigh
And drink this cup
We will burn but
We will not burn up Wake, feel your worth
Oh my soul
Speak the word
The word that can save us all Awed by grace
I fall on my face
And scream the word
That can save us all
