

Mighty God

Thelma J. Robinson

We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God

We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God

Glory and honor belongs to him
He's the beginning and He's the end
He holds the world in the palm of His hand
He's numbered your hairs and the grains of sand

We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God

He will supply your every need
Your hungry soul is able to feed
No need to worry, no need to fret
He's own this world child and don't you forget

We serve a faithful God
We serve a faithful God
We serve a faithful God
We serve a faithful God

We serve an awesome God
We serve an awesome God
We serve an awesome God
We serve an awesome God

We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God
We serve a mighty God

We serve a mighty God

We serve a faithful God

We serve an awesome God

We serve a mighty God
