Wasting Away

Backstabbers Incorporated

If angels fall,
I don't know if I'll be any use at all
Alone we were, inseparable
You lied to me,
I didnt see it come,
And now I'm on my own
For the words that left your mouth were terminal
Together we're unsuitable
I pray for thee, I pray for me.
Carry on wasting my time, yeah I'm wasted
If you wanna waste all my time, then I'm wasting away...
Why dont you murder me? Why dont you?
Who's gonna run for you? who's gona run for you now?
We're not so strong
I never knew it any better 'til the fall
A friend I saw, he said today, you think too much,
I'm tryna give it up and still I cant press play
Or find the words when there is nothing left to say
I dont request your sympathy
I thought of you, I think of me.
Carry on wasting my time, yeah I'm wasted
If you wanna waste all my time, then I'm wasting away.

Why dont you murder me? why dont you?
Who's gonna run for you? who's gona run for you now?
Cos I'm wasting away
Why don't you care for me? Why don't you?
Who's gonna run for you? who's gona run for you now?
Wasting away!
Wasting away!
I'm wasting away!
I'm wasting away!
Cos I'm wasting away
Why dont you murder me? why dont you?
Who's gonna run for you? who's gona run for you now?
Cos I'm wasting away
Why don't you care for me? Why don't you?
Who's gonna run for you? who's gona run for you now?
Care for me

Care for me
When the angels come
Care for me
Care for me
When the angels come
Calm
