Sound of Defeat

Until June

All my body's weak when it wakes me from my sleep i'm a afraid that i'm losing all control and staring at the ground, i'm shaken by the sound of a hundred voices screaming backif i learned this from the pain that it caused me yesterday if i'm falling back asleep will i soon wake up
from the sound of defeat?
from the sound of defeatin all my tainted soul i'm haunted when alone am i nothing more than a wasted casualty? but broken from the thorns you pulled me from the floor will i soon wake up?if i learned this from the pain when you took on all my shame
