Shhhh
C'mon, c'monMy best friend's a butcher
He has sixteen knives
He carries them all over the town
At least he tries
Oh, look it stopped snowingMy best friend's from Poland
And um, he has a beard
But they caught him with his case
In a public place
That is what we had fearedHe severed segments secretly
You like that
He always had the time to speak
With me and I liked him for thatHe severed segments so secretly
You like that
He always took the time
He always took the timeC'mon now pussycatMy best friend's a butcher
He has sixteen knives
He carries them all over the town
At least he tries
Oh, look it stopped snowingMy best friend's from Poland
And um, he has a beard
But they caught him with his case
In a public place
That is what we had fearedHe severed segments secretly
You like that
He always had the time to speak
With me and I liked him for thatHe severed segments so secretly
You like that
He was growing on me
He was growing on me
