I Can't Stop Crying

Sam Phillips

I saw black and you saw red
Crawled to separate corners the line went dead
I closed my heart up tore your love for me to shredsTangled wires love can't breathe
Pulling tighter to my ruthless need
Don't look down I want you unconsolablyI can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)
I can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)Stubborn distance closes in
With your assistance bitterly begin
To build a wall of silence cutting soul in twoCloudy water in my eyes
I'm ashamed of words with secret knives
In dream I scream but you can't hear me calling youI can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)
I can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)
I can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)I know that this heartache is
A speck in the sky of love
But it's all I feel around me
(All I feel around me)I can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)
I can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)
I can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)I can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)
I can't stop crying
(I can't stop crying)
