Her Last Wave

The Go! Team

turning, turning me over and over again did you notice, something I didn't notice?
someone else's tears in my eyes did you notice?forces rearrange us oceans didn't care being here won't change us sorry I wasn't therechorus: inside, inside where i wanna be alive, alive through it allyou gotta know it we were the prize
did you notice
and now you're crashing into my eyes did you know it?somethings's getting close now turning in the blue nearly, nearly there now sorry I wasn't true[chorus]did you notice, something I didn't notice?
did you notice?
and if the oceans's ending it where we were closest you gotta know it, somethings not there did you notice?will you ever ride the breaking sea with someone else instead? will you ever belong here after me with anyone?[chorus]you gotta know it you gotta know it
