Allegiance

Firewind

They feed you lies and bring you pain
Your life sucked from your veins
Clever disguise falling from grace
And now the sinners are marching on

Inside my mind
Warlike thoughts
Are taking over me

See our generation torn, our burning hearts
No more praises in the hall
Were all about to fall
Empty memories are shattering our dreams
Can you recall?

Pledge your allegiance
Pledge your allegiance

You hate them yet you wont betray
The wars you fight aren't yours!
The path of no return you take
Until you lose control

Inside my mind
Warlike thoughts a
Are taking over me

See our generation torn, our burning hearts
No more praises in the hall
Were all about to fall
Empty memories are shattering our dreams
Can you recall?
