Balloons

Julia Nunes

Years went by and
We got older
Remember the days,
When gas was sold for 1.50 a gallon
Oh how things have changed,
Like those stylish fads
And the look on your faceWhen you see me for the first time in years
We swore we'd never end up here
Well I won't leave you alone, if it's gone, I'll move on It's time to leave, while my eyes are still dry
It's time to leave while my head is held highTime to bolt, time to bail, time to go, where to?
Well I really don't knowI'm gone, so long, see you soon,
Up, up and away like a rising balloon
I'm just stupid enough to pack up and leave,
Taking all that you have trusted and confided it in meHug me now because you might lose your chance
I am crouched in my sprinting stanceTime to bolt, time to bail, time to go
'Cause I'll let you get way too close
I'm gone so long, see you soon
Up, up and away like a rising balloon
I'm just crazy enough to leave you behind,
Though you're nothing like I have found or will findYears went by and
We got older
Remember the days,
When gas was sold for 1.50 a gallon
Oh how things have changed,
Like thoes stylish fads
And the look on your face
When you see me for the first time in years
We swore we'd never end up hereWell I won't be alone.
