

Walkin' Blues

Melinda Doolittle

Woke up this morning feelin' 'round for my shoes

Know I must have them old walkin' blues

Woke up this morning feelin' 'round for my shoes

Well, you know I must have them old walkin' blues Lord, I feel like blowing my lonesome home

Got up this morning and all I had was gone

I feel like blowing, oh my lonesome home

Well, I got up this morning and everything I had was gone I got them old walkin' blues Well, now some people tell me that these worried blues ain't bad

Well, it's the worst old feeling I ever had

Oh, some people tell me these worried blues ain't bad

Well, honey it's the worst old feeling I ever had
