Problem Solved (Ft. Jessie Ware)

SBTRKT

Had a problem I cant leave it alone
There's a problem where my thought on my own
I can't talk like this with anyone else
I can't talk like this with anyone elseIf you ever wanted to be the one
Start to sorrow when it's already done
I can't talk like this with anyone else
I can't talk like this with anyone else(chorus)
I think that you ort to know
We're part of a problem solve
As long as were both involved
Its part of a problem solveAnd it feels like we've been here before
But you ort to know
Ye you ort to know.
I'm sorry if I took a while to explain
But now you're here while I say it again
Don't want to talk like this with anyone else
Don't want to talk like this with anyone else
