

Requiem for O.M.M.

of Montreal

When I met you, I was just a kid
Hadnt built up my defenses
So I gave my heart completely, Vaseline over the lenses
Memories dont go away, I remember every dayI never ever stop wondering Wondering if you still think of us
I dont need a photograph, 'cause youve never left my mind
No youve never left my mindI remember feeling like a ship
Whose captain was too drunk to steer
And you watched as I was sinking
Waving sadly from the pierIts such a burden to carry 'round
The vestiges of dead dreams
And I dont want to make a wake out of my life
I just had to let you go
