

Why Did I Ever Like You

Pink

Barabarabaraadada

There was a 5.8 earthquake today and it kinda got me thinking

I'd still have all my hate for you in tact even if I lost everything What did I say

Why are you shaking your head

You know you done me wrong

I may be crazy it's all in my head

But I want you darling gone Why did I ever like you

What did I see

Whatever it was must have been some kind of illusion

A Magic trick on meeh eh eh eh [repeats for a bit] It's hard to believe I ever laughed at anything you said

Cos you're just not funny

Who would believe I'd let you do all those things

Oh I guess the joke was on me I tried to be zane

I've even asked all my friends

To help me let it slide

But all I see is your face

In my favourite place

And I can't help but wonder why Why did I ever like you

What did I see

Whatever it was must have been some kind of illusion

A Magic trick on meeh eh eh eh [repeats for a bit] Yeaahhheee I tried to be zane

I've even asked all my friends

To help me let it slide

All I see is your face

In my favourite place

And I can't help but wonder why Why did I ever like you

What did I see

Whatever it was must have been some kind of illusion

A Magic trick on meeh eh eh eh [repeats for a bit] Tell me why did I

Why did I ever like you

What did I see

Whatever it was must have been some kind of illusion

A Magic trick on me
