The Name

Shakhan

We acknowledge that you judge the living and the dead.
We thank you for your love and the pure blood you shed.
We confess that you are G-d.Our eyes now open.
Your voice did hail.
Then your light did shine on us as we stepped through the veil.Blessing peace they will come to all those that know you.
For you're G-d you're a man and was born a Jew.
We confess that you are G-dWe praises your name, we praise your name.
The only name by which man can be saved.
Can be saved.
