

When the Night Kills the Day

Lauren Pritchard

Oh, I'm no temptress but I'm no angel either
And it feels good to be a stranger
No one can judge me, I'm like the new outsider
Guess I should welcome this new change
Come and take a seat, let's talk it over
I don't wanna keep you in the dark
Go on ahead and bring me the roses
It's almost time for me to be going
I'm so afraid that I might be led astray
Nothing can save me when the night kills the day
You think I'm crazy
You think I've made a big mistake
But who am I to question fate?
I don't wanna have to cut you loose but
I don't wanna make a sacrifice
Go on ahead and bring me the roses
It's almost time for me to be going
I'm so afraid that I might be led astray
How will I know to pull on the ropes in
It doesn't seem like anything's slowing
Nothing can save me when the night kills the day
Here comes the night, it's taking me over
Here comes the night, it's taking me over
Go on ahead and bring me the roses
It's almost time for me to be going
I'm so afraid that I might be led astray
How will I know to pull on the ropes in
It doesn't seem like anything's slowing
Nothing can save me when the night kills the day
