

Greatest

Blood Red Boots

Give me a reason darling. Why he's better than me.

I stalked him everyday I can't find a single thing.

You're hearing voices saying you should take me back.

I'll make this easy for you. Sit back and relax. I am the greatest. The greatest you'll ever have. And I'm gonna haunt you. I'm gonna haunt you and I'm not gonna stop. When you see a man at your window that's not a fucking ghost.

When you feel a draft on your shoulder that's not a wind that blows.

I'm not obsessive, I'm a martyr for our love.

Just give up the fight now baby, I know you've had enough. I am the greatest. The greatest you'll ever have. And I'm gonna haunt you. I'm gonna haunt you and I'm not gonna stop.
