Gypsy Woman (Acoustic)

Anarbor

And then she took my soul,
But I didn't know
That Gypsy Woman's got me under control.
She fed me lies while she cast her spells.
That Gypsy Woman's really ringing my bells.And to hell I will go, knocking right on Satan's door.
Heaven's no, this ain't it.
Honey, I won't beg I'll just take it quick.
She took my to my knees and now she's got my prayingSave me, she's a liar.
And I can't seem to untie the rope
She's got wrapped around her finger.
Think I lost the last bit of my self control.I can feel the hole that she left,
Gypsy Woman robbed me of my best.
She said she couldn't stay,
Gypsy Woman wore black on her wedding day.And to hell I will go, knocking right on Satan's door.
Heaven's no, this ain't it.
Honey, I won't beg I'll just take it quick.
She took my to my knees and now she's got my prayingSave me, she's a liar.
And I can't seem to untie the rope
She's got wrapped around her finger.
Think I lost the last bit of my self control.'Cause I don't need,
What you've been giving me,
So Gypsy Woman stay the hell away from me.
'Cause I don't need,
What you've been giving me,
So Gypsy Woman stay the hell away from me.
'Cause I don't need,
What you've been giving me,
So Gypsy Woman, stay the fuck away from me.(And baby, yeah.)
Save me, she's a liar.
And I can't seem to untie the rope
She's got wrapped around her finger,
Think I lost the last bit of my self control.Yeah, she's a liar.
And I can't untie the rope,
She's got wrapped around her finger,
Think I lost the last bit of my self control.
