Shadrow

it has been much to long since i've put on my skin they must have hid it away when they found out where i'd been woah
i don't think you belong you'd best get out of here i see you hidden away through the window, drenched with fear

getting hard to see don't forget to breath
now you've lost the feed
time to watch you bleed

why are you trying to find
you'll never know exactly what it is that came before the present past is gone
your future won't be long don't risk your life in search of all the things that came before in 1987, they didn't go to heaven soon as the cameras die i won't be far behind
you'll never know exactly what it is that came before

Seems you won't heed my warning
You just keep coming back Despite hallucinations giving you these heart attacks
But now my time is coming I'll be the last to laugh
The spirits can't protect you when you're being torn in half

Getting hard to see
Don't forget to breathe
Now you've lost the feed

You'll never know exactly what it is that came before
The present past is gone
Investigations be damned, you'll never know who I am
You may have saved their souls
But you just played your role
You'll never know exactly what it is that came before

You'd best stop wasting your time, reading between the scan lines
So long as number four Does not build on the lore
